

"Dedicated to Building Quality, Affordable Housing and Strong Neighborhoods"

In attendance were 8 out of 22 families who have successfully completed the first time Homebuyers Education classes resulting in the purchase of a home. Festivities included a buffet dinner while attendees shared their experience about their new homes.

Gifts were given to all families which included a Paper Shredder and $25 gift certificates from Merrimack County Savings Bank.
